street property for sale; four vacant lots, one brick dwelling rented for $30.00 per month; Address Nogales, Ariz. tf3.

A. W. Morris was a business visitor in the line city the forepart of the week, from Magdalena, Sonora, where for several years he has made his headquarters.

The Racket Store presents a pleasing appearance since Manager Saleeby has had it enlarged and stocked with a nice line of goods for the fall and winter trade.

G. F. Powell, manager of El Tajo Mining Company, came up from the mines near Poza, Sonora, the forepart of the week and enjoyed a visit here with his family.

High grade American and Mexican beer icy cold, always served by Pete Torres, just across the international line. Prompt service; courteous treat-

Agent W. G. Bowman and family have taken up their residence in the new Bowman cottage on West Elm street, where they are now pleasantly and comfortably located.

Arthur Hamilton has been spending a few days here from Magdalena, Sonora, where for several years he has made his headquarters, while operating mining properties in that section.

Henry Levin, of Brady Levin Commission Company, has been slightly under the weather recently, suffering an attack of fever, contracted while on a recent business trip in Sonora.

Last Sunday Fred. Fleishman, the Tucson druggist and capitalist, accompanied by a party of friends, visited Nogales in his mammoth touring automobile, driven by his son Herman.

Every citizen of Arizona, who has the price, should help welcome President Taft when he visits the territory next month. Nogales will be well represented at Phoenix October 13th.

The advance agent for a company of Spanish bull fighters, now at Guaymas, has been in the city a couple of days arranging with Manager Wren of the Cowboy park for a number of exhibitions.

Gaston Schwob, formerly of Nogales, now of Cananea, Sonora, where he is successfully engaged in mining and retail mercantile business, spent a couple of days in the line city this week transacting business.

City Marshal and Mrs. Moore are now at Paywood, New Mexico hot springs. The business of the city marshal's office is being taken care of by Tom Sanford, who is ably assisted by John Clarke.

H. Vincent Wallace, the mining engineer, member of the local firm of Wallace & Summerhayes, consulting mining engineers and U. S. mineral surveyors, is absent from the city on professional business.

Hon. Samuel Hughes, one of Arizona's pioneers citizens, also one of Tucson's first white people, was a visitor here the first of the week on his way home from Cananea, where he had been on business.

Tomorrow Juan Arizmendez, manager of the Boston Store, Incorporated, will go to Tucson to purchase a big line of spring and summer goods from a representative of one of the largest clothing houses in America.

Charley Ruppelius, of the brokerage firm of O. F. Holler & Company, went to Courtland the first of the week with a big bunch of Mexican laborers for Grant Brothers Construction Company, the big railroad builders.

Mrs. A. E. Saxon, who for a couple of weeks has been in Los Angeles for the benefit of her health, writes that she is getting along nicely. This will be good news to the lady's many friends in Nogales and throughout Santa Cruz county.

Mr. Nicolas Rodriguez has completed the laying of sidewalk in front of his Elm street property, having personally superintended the work. Other property owners on the street will shortly comply with the order of the city council.

President Taft will be accompanied on his entire trip through Arizona by Hon. William S. Sturgis, of Tucson, national Republican committeeman from Arizona, and John Hays Hammond, the mining engineer, two close personal friends of the president.

The forepart of the week Harry Karna went to the mines of the Llano Consolidated Company, out from Santa Ana, with a big automobile for the use of Manager William McComas.
The machine was shipped from the east direct to Santa Ana, Sonora.

Bob Tryon, of cowboy and Airdome fame, departed Tuesday morning for newer and more verdant fields. Bob possesses many accomplishments besides his tricks of mystery and his ability to play a horn or ride a bronco.
He should do well in any country.

Mr. M. Tarriba, a wealthy citizen of the state of Sinaloa, Mexico, has been spending a couple of days at this place pending the arrival of his friend Governor Redo of Sinaloa, who is on his way home from the City of Mexico.
Mr. Tarriba recently returned from a pleasure trip in Europe.

Fred. Moore, a Colorado mining man, who with a number of associates is operating gold property in the Altar District, Sonora, Mexico, has for several days been a business visitor in the city. The gentlemen says Colorado capital is taking a great deal of interest in Sonora mines.

Dr. Ray Ferguson, formerly of Nogales, now a resident of Tucson, where he recently purchased a pleasant home, spent Thursday in town on mining business. The gentleman is largely interested in mining property in Santa Cruz county and the state of Sonora, which now receives all his attention.

Wednesday Nogales was visited by Don Pedro Trelles, prefecto of the Magdalena district, Sonora, with headquarters in Magdalena, Sonora.
The prefecto was accompanied by his mother, Señora Maclovía Trelles, a charming old lady, who, like her son, is well known and highly respected in this city.

A large number of Santa Cruz county citizens will accept the invitation of Mayor Brickwood and members of the Town Council to act as members of the delegation from this county which will go to Phoenix on October 12th to meet President Taft on October 13th. THE BORDER VI-DETTE acknowledges an invitation with thanks.

The Bell Mexican circus, for the past week at Cananea, is billed to appear in Nogales, Sonora, this evening.
Bell, the proprietor of the circus is an American, who has lived in Mexico more than twenty years. He is regarded by many as the greatest Spanish speaking clown in the world and is one of the chief attractions of the show which bears his name.

Mrs. William S. Oranz and Mrs. A.
F. Krohn, came up from Magdalena Tuesday evening and spent Wednesday here shopping. Wednesday night the ladies returned south, en route to Ouliacan, Sinaloa, where Mrs. Oranz will visit with her sister, who is the wife of Mr. Krohn, right-of-way-agent in Mexico for the Cananea, Yaqui River & Pacific railway.

FOR SALE—The old established business of Frank Irvine, formerly John Junda, Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, at stock valuation. Lease runs more than two years and could be renewed 9 4 tf Frank Irvine.

P. J. McCarty was in town Wednesday with a wagon load of fine apples raised on the splendid McCarty place in the foot-hills of the Huachuca mountains. Mr. McCarty reports an abundance of fruit this year. On account of the size and quality of the Huachuca fruit, which can't be excelled any place in the United States, he always finds a ready market, at top price, for his product.

O. H. Ogden, for a long time with the Sonora News Company as expert jeweler and watchmaker is again connected with the big local branch, of which Ferd VanMourick is manager.
The Cananea branch, of which Mr.
Ogden was superintendent, has been closed, the stock of goods being shipped to the Guaymas branch, which will also be under Mr. VanMourick's management. Ogden's friends are glad to see him return to Nogales.

Eduardo Borton, of Tucson, brother of Mrs. I. Bonillas of this city, after two years absence from the United States, during which time he has been in the states of Sinaloa and Tepic in the employ of the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific R. R. Co., is home for a well-earned rest. Eduardo has for some time past been suffering with an attack of fever contracted in the southern country which he will get rid of before returning to his post.

News from the Zambona Development Company's mines at Minas Nuevas, Sonora, Mexico, is to the effect that the great cyanide plant and other new machinery is now installed, and about October 1st will be placed in commission. W. S. Oranz, the mining man, who is largely interested in Zambona, has gone to Minas Nuevas to be present when the big plant is started up. He is recognized as one of the best cyanide men in the country.

The generous hearted people of Arizona, irrespective of party affiliations, are everywhere extending the glad hand of welcome to Hon. William Jennings Bryan. On Wednesday night Mr. Bryan delivered a great lecture in Tucson, and was given such a reception as only true Arizonians know how to give. When Mr. Bryan met Hon.
Mark Smith, who is now in Tucson, the great orator said: "Hello Mark, God bless you; it does me good to meet you.
You live in Phoenix, don't you?" To which Mark said: "No sir; this is my home, good old Tucson."

N. J. Purcell, manager of the Buena Fortuna Gold Mining Company, who with his associates, F. F. Oranz and A. M. Conard, recently sold the Red Prince group of copper mines, situated near Llano, Sonora, Mexico, to Baltimore capitalists, went down to the property the first of the week to put a force of miners at work taking out shipping ore, of which there is a big lot in sight. Mr. Purcell reported operations at his Buen Fortuna camp in the Pinito mountains progressing nicely at the 100-foot level where a cross-cut is being run to cut the vein.

The treasurers of different counties in Arizona have been asked by Territorial Auditor Foster that they remit to the territorial treasurer any funds that they may have in their possession to the credit of the territory and that they remit every month as fast as the money comes in. The auditor states that on account of the work being started on the new territorial highway that the territory needs the money to meet these expenses as well as to meet some of the apportionments made by the last legislature.
The new prison at Florence needs some additional funds as well as some of the other territorial institutions.

Last Saturday Messrs. J. A. Harrison and J. E. Wise successfully crossed between thirteen and fourteen hundred head of Mexican cattle out at Buena Vista ranch. The cattle were purchased last April from the Pierson estate in Sonora, and were in excellent condition. They will be added to the already large holdings of Messrs. Harrison and Wise, and will range in Santa Cruz and Cochise counties. This is the second consignment of stock received by the gentlemen from the Pierson ranch this year. A third will be crossed in the near future. The cattle were purchased through Brady-Levin Commission Co. of this city.

The forepart of this week Mr. Raph Gaby, a prominent well-to-do business man of Memphis, Tenn., and his esteemed wife, after a month's pleasant visit here with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leeker of the El Paso Store, departed for their home, via San Francisco. Mr. Gaby expressed himself as delighted with Nogales' excellent climate and hospitable people, and said he believed he could get the "Mazuma" here in a business way. Raph is certainly there with a "package" when it comes to delivering the "goods," and we hope to see him return to locate permanently.

Thursday evening the Nogales Gas Company started up their plant in the presence of the owners and a number of invited guests, many of whom had never before witnessed the interesting process of generating gas by the latest method. The plant is first-class in every respect and when the big tank, now nearing completion, is finished, Nogales will have a plant of sufficient capacity to supply a town many times its size. The gentlemen to whom the Town of Nogales granted the gas franchise, have "made good," and we hope they'll reap a golden harvest for their enterprise in installing the plant, in compliance with their agreement with the city.

Prof. Guillermo Hall, who has had phenomenal success in teaching Spanish in Mexico and in this country the past seventeen years, is a guest at the Montezuma hotel. He comes to Nogales to give one course, covering a period of six weeks. This evening at 4:30 and at 8 o'clock, and next Monday evening, at Masonic Hall, he will deliver free lectures. In these lectures the professor will explain his method and give a sample lesson; in which he will teach you over one hundred Spanish words, then, if you like the teacher and the method, join the class for the course. The professor says if at the end of the week you are not satisfied with the progress made, your money will be returned.

E. D. Ruggles, representing E. D.
Ruggles & Co., Chicago, Illinois bond buyers, who with his wife has been spending some time in Nogales investigating the Nogales Gas Company's $50,000 bond proposition, departed for his eastern home this morning, accompanied by Mrs. Ruggles. It is stated on good authority, that Mr.
Ruggles yesterday closed a deal whereby he purchased the gas bonds for his company. Details of the transaction were not learned by THE BORDER VI-DETTE reporter. It is also stated that Mr. Ruggles while here purchased a valuable piece of agricultural land a short distance from the city on the Santa Cruz river. Consideration $1,- 500. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ruggles will be pleased to learn that they contemplate an early return to Nogales.

Thursday night Governor elect Diego Redo of the state of Sinaloa, Mexico, arrived in the city from the City of Mexico, on his way to Ouliacan, the capital of Sinaloa, where he will immediately assume the duties of his high office. Governor Redo, who is a highly educated gentleman of most pleasing personality was met at the international line by a large crowd of people desirous of meeting the new governor of the great state of Sinaloa. Among those who welcomed the distinguished gentleman were a number of personal friends from his home state, local Mexican officials, business men and railroad officials. In the absence of Superintendent Temple, Assistant Superintendent Neil Bailey, welcomed Governor Redo in behalf of the railroad company, in his usual pleasing manner. All who had the honor of meeting and conversing with Governor Redo, express the belief that he will make "good" as governor of Sinaloa.
